General Manager Clanin reported at the June meeting of the Board of Directors that he intends to move to Tennessee in the Fall. An Ad-Hoc committee consisting of Director Farrell, Director Stone and General Manager Clanin was appointed by President Griffin to recruit a Temporary Assistant General Manager for the purposes of training and eventual ascension to the position of General Manager.

The District received 14 applications for the position of Assistant General Manager which included some very qualified candidates. Following a thorough evaluation of the applications, the Ad-Hoc Committee elected to interview 6 candidates. The Committee after careful consideration instructed the General Manager to offer the position to Jordan Dietz.
